

Please note the following important dates regarding the abstract submission:

3 February 2020: deadline for extended abstract submission

10 April 2020: notification of acceptance/rejection

4 May 2020: deadline for full paper submission

6 July 2020: deadline for submission of camera-ready extended abstracts OR full papers

8 September 2020: Opening of the Congress

Evaluation of proposals

Submissions are Extended Abstracts with a maximum of 1.000 words, excluding references, tables and figures.

After the notification of acceptance all authors will have the opportunity to prepare and submit a camera-ready abstract or a full paper.

All submissions should strictly follow the templates provided.

Only the contributions that fully follow the template and that were received within the set deadline will be published in the proceedings.

The Programme Committee reserves the right to exclude any contribution from publication on grounds of poor language quality or failure to comply with the reviewers' suggestions and/or with quality standard.

Call for papers

Papers, e-posters and software demonstrations are invited on all topics of lexicography, including, but not limited to, the following fields:

- The Dictionary-Making Process
- Research on Dictionary Use
- Lexicography and Language Technologies
- Lexicography and Corpus Linguistics
- Bi- and Multilingual Lexicography
- Lexicography for Specialised Languages, Terminology and Terminography

- State of Lexicography and Corpus Linguistics in post-Soviet states
- Historical and Scholarly Lexicography and Etymology
- Lexicography and Semantic Theory
- Phraseology and Collocation
- Lexicological Issues of Lexicographical Relevance
- Reports on Lexicographical and Lexicological Projects.
- Lexicography for special needs

The main topics are not meant to exclude any lexicographic topic. Papers, e-posters and demonstrations that are relevant to the congress, but which do not fit into any of the categories 1-13, will be reviewed nonetheless and considered for presentation.

Types of contributions and submissions

When handing in your proposal, you can choose between the following types of contribution:

- Papers (full papers)
- Software demonstrations
- e-Posters

Papers and e-posters can be presented in any European language, but please note that no interpreting services are offered at the Congress. For a proper evaluation of the abstracts it is recommended that abstracts are written in English, French, or Greek. If you want to submit an abstract in another language, please contact the local organizers before submission.

Only papers accepted and registered will be included in the final program.

All proposals will be anonymously reviewed by a minimum of two members of the Scientific Committee.
